

We don't need the FCC interfering in NJ state law. Since the Do Not Call law was introduced, my phone has been pleasingly quiet and I want it that way.